Income Tax Return 2024 (incorporating Med 1) - Form 12S

This form is intended for customers with routine tax affairs who are unable to use our online services. Please state the reason you are unable to use our online services in the box provided.

Note: In joint assessed cases this form must be completed by the assessable spouse or civil partner. He or she is responsible for filing tax returns and paying any tax due. If you are not the assessable spouse, completing this form will deem you to be the assessable spouse for this tax year only.

You should return this form to your Revenue office. The address of your Revenue office can be found on any correspondence you have received from Revenue. Use any envelope and write 'FREEPOST' above the address. No stamp is required.

Revenue collects taxes, duties and implements customs controls. We need customers to provide certain personal data for these purposes and for other statutory functions as assigned by the Oireachtas. Your personal data may be shared with other Government Departments and agencies where required by law. Full details of our data protection policy are available on www.revenue.ie/privacy. Details of this policy are also available in paper form upon request.

Tax Credits, Allowances and Reliefs

Please note, tax credits such as the personal tax credit, age tax credit and the employee tax credit will be automatically granted if they are due to you or your spouse or civil partner.

Home Carer Tax Credit

To claim the Home Carer Tax Credit you must care for a dependent person. You must also be married or in a civil partnership and be jointly assessed for Income Tax.

The dependent person you care for must be either:

- a child for whom you receive the child benefit payment from the Department of Social Protection (DSP)
- a person aged 65 years or over
- a person who is permanently incapacitated due to mental or physical disability.

Blind Person's Tax Credit

If you are blind or you have impaired vision during the tax year, you can claim the Blind Tax Credit.

If you are married or in a civil partnership and you are both blind, you can both claim the Blind Tax Credit.

Guide Dog Allowance

If you are blind or visually impaired, you can claim a tax credit if you own a trained guide dog.

Assistance Dogs for Adults and Children

You can claim a tax credit if you require a trained assistance dog.

What is this Form 12S?

The Form 12S is a simplified return for certain PAYE taxpayers. If you are claiming other tax credits or have other sources of income not included on this form; for example, remote working credit or rental income, you should complete the income tax return (Form 12). You must declare all taxable income that you received in 2024.

Completing the Form 12S

When completing this form please use BLOCK CAPITALS and a blue pen where possible. Please insert Euro (€) figures only.

Accessibility

If you are a person with a disability and have any difficulties in completing this form the Revenue Access Officer can be contacted at DisabilityAccessOfficer@revenue.ie or by phone at (01) 647 4498.

Payments from the Department of Social Protection

The Social Welfare Consolidation Act 2005 provides for the payment of an increase in the amount of the State pension where the recipient has an adult dependent. For tax purposes, the State pension recipient should include the total amount of the pension and the increased adult dependent payment in the relevant field on the return. The State pension recipient will be due the employee tax credit. Their spouse or civil partner is not entitled to the employee tax credit in respect of the adult dependent payment.

Qualifying Health Expenses

The headings under which expenses qualify include, but are not limited to -

- Services of a doctor or consultant
- Total cost of prescribed drugs or medicines for the year (where supplied on the prescription of a qualifying practitioner)
- Educational Psychological Assessment for a dependent child
- Speech and Language Therapy for a dependent child
- Orthoptic or similar treatment (on referral from a doctor or other qualifying practitioner)
- Diagnostic procedures (X-rays, etc.)
- Physiotherapy or similar treatment (on referral from a doctor or other qualifying practitioner)
- Maintenance or treatment in a hospital
- Expenses incurred on any medical, surgical or nursing appliance
- Non-Routine Dental Treatment.

Nursing Homes

Nursing Homes must provide qualified nursing care on-site on a 24 hour per day basis.

Consumable products

Relief can be claimed for the costs incurred on products manufactured specifically for coeliacs and diabetics where this expenditure is incurred on the advice of a qualifying medical practitioner.

Non-Routine Dental Expenses

You must have a completed Form Med 2 (Dental), signed and certified by the dental practitioner when making a claim for non-routine dental expenses. A full list of qualifying treatments is listed on the reverse of the Form Med 2 (Dental) which is available from your dental practitioner. You do not have to submit the Form Med 2 (Dental) with this Return. However, you must keep the Form Med 2 (Dental) for six years as you may be asked to send it in if your claim is chosen for a detailed examination.

Health Expenses that do not qualify

- Cost of sight testing and provision and maintenance of spectacles and contact lenses.
- Routine dental treatment which is defined as ‘the extraction, scaling and filling of teeth and the provision and repair of artificial teeth and dentures’.
- Cosmetic surgery unless the surgery or procedure is necessary as a result of a physical deformity arising from, or directly related to a congenital abnormality, personal injury or a disfiguring disease.

Receipts for expenses claimed

You should only make a claim for amounts that you have receipts for. You must keep the receipts for six years as you may be asked to send them to Revenue if your claim is chosen for a detailed examination.

Deductions for sums received or receivable in respect of Health Expenses

You cannot claim relief in respect of refunds already received or due to be received from

- Any public or local authority, for example, Health Service Executive
- Any policy of insurance
- Any other source, for example, a compensation claim.

You must give details of such amounts and deduct them from the amount claimed on the claim form.

Capital Gains Tax

If you, or your spouse or civil partner, have disposed of any chargeable assets, for example, land, shares, paintings, antiques, etc. in the year 2024, you must complete Form CG1. Please contact your Revenue office if you need a Form CG1.

Penalties / Civil Penalties / Criminal Prosecution

Tax law provides for both civil penalties and criminal sanctions for the failure to make a return, the making of a false return, facilitating the making of a false return, or claiming tax credits, allowances or reliefs which are not due. In the event of a criminal prosecution, a person convicted on indictment of an offence may be liable to a fine not exceeding €126,970 and / or to a penalty of up to double the difference between the declared tax due and the tax ultimately found to be due and / or to imprisonment.

Time Limit for Repayment Claims

You must make a claim for a repayment of tax within four years after the end of the tax year to which the claim relates. For example, claims for 2021 must be made by 31 December 2025. You must have paid income tax during the year of your claim in order to receive a repayment. If you owe income tax to Revenue for an earlier year, your repayment may be reduced by this amount.
